Property Sales.

An auction sale of real estate in this city today demonstrated the fact that Alexandria property has stiffened considerably in value during the past few years. The store on the north side of King street, between Royal and Pitt, now occupied by Mr. R. W. French, was one of the pieces advertised to be sold under a deed of trust by Capt. R. F. Knox. It was, however, withdrawn, before the hour of sale. It is stated that $9,000 would have been realized had a sale taken place. Two houses directly opposite Mr. French's property were sold to Mrs. L. C. Reed for $5,425; houses Nos 205 and 207 Wolfe street were sold to Mr. A. D. Brockett for $610, and house No. 113 Prince street to Mrs. L. C. Reed for $600. Mr. Samuel H. Hunt was the auctioneer who made these sales. A short time ago a house and lot on the square east of the King street property described above brought only $2,100. It is said that a few weeks ago a gentleman owning a house and lot on north Columbus street was offered double the amount he paid for it several years ago, and it is also averred that bidders from other cities were here today for the purpose of purchasing Alexandria real estate, it having been demonstrated that more interest can be realized on outlays here than in Washington. All these exhibits afford pleasant reading to those of our people who have waited long and patiently for another era for this city and who believe a new day has dawned for Alexandria.

A Pleasant Affair.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Smith last night gave a pleasant entertainment at their home, 827 Wolfe street, in celebration of the return of their son, Mr. George Smith, who has just retired from the navy after an absence of several years from this city. A large number of guests were present from this city and other places, among them Dr. Keech and family, Mrs. and Miss Mary Spence of College Park, Md.; Mrs. Powers, of Port Royal; Miss Rust, of Falls Church; Miss Strother of Fauquier, and Mrs. Barnard and Mrs. Coffey, of Washington. The rooms were beautifully and tastefully decorated with flowers and refreshments were served during the evening. Mr. Smith presented his mother with a beautiful set of china ware, purchased in Singapore. The set contains 42 pieces and the present was in commemoration of the 25th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Smith.

Police Court Notes.

The following cases were disposed of by Mayor Simpson this morning:
James Johnson, arrested by Officers Henderson and Griffin is a suspicious character, was dismissed, he being on his way to his old home in Lynchburg. He is a member of the itinerancy and for some time he has been moving from one city to another.
Henry Heimaldenman, arrested by Special Officer Mullen charged with lunacy, was held subject to the action of his friends.
Arthur Brent, colored, charged with disorderly conduct in a saloon in the southern part of the city on Thursday night, was dismissed for want of evidence.
Four lodgers were at the station house last night.

Deaths.

Mrs. Hannah Cox, a daughter of the late Chalkley Gillingham, died last night at her home on the Woodlawn estate, in lower Fairfax county. She was well known throughout this section.
Rev. John E. T. Ewell, M. D., 68 years old, pastor of Waverly Methodist Protestant Church, died yesterday afternoon at his home in Waverly in Baltimore county, Md., after an illness of three months. Dr. Ewell was born in Accomac county, Virginia, and was the father of Rev. J. H. S. Ewell, of this city.

Flags at Half-mast.

The flags of the river steamers were at half-mast today in respect to the memory of the late Engineer James Nash, who died in Washington a day or two ago and whose funeral took place this afternoon. Mr. Nash had been the engineer of several river steamers during past years, and previous to his last illness was engineer of the steamer Kent.

Personal.

Miss Cora Mae Macneal, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mrs. Susan Smoot. Mr. and Mrs. McNabb and Miss Florence Kinzer, of Lancaster, Pa., are visiting in this city.

Mrs. Montrose Houck, of New York city, is visiting her father-in-law, Mr. Alonzo Houck, on Duke street.

Miss Lida Wattles, of Washington, is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. H. Wattles, on Cameron street.

Mrs. J. D. Gatewood has returned from Hampton where she has been visiting relatives.

Mr. John P. Robinson, of Alexandria, was in Culpeper on Tuesday last. Mr. Robinson is one of the gentlemen interested in the newly organized Berry Hill Mineral Springs Company.—[Culpeper Exponent.

Messrs. Hollis R. Cooke and W. A. Cox, who have been on a week's visit to this city, returned to their homes in Wilmington, Del., today.

Mr. and Mrs. Courtland Lukens have gone to Roanoke to visit their son who is in business in that city.

Mr. John Swift, who has been seriously ill at his home on the opposite side of the river, is rapidly recovering his health.

Dr. T. Marshall Jones and Captain H. C. Ausley have returned from a successful hunting trip in King George county.

Messrs. J. R. and H. B. Caton have returned from Arkansas, where they went on legal business.

British Schooner in Port.
The three-masted British schooner Theta, from Cheverie, N. S., with lump plaster to the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company, has arrived. She is anchored in front of W. A. Smoot & Co.'s wharf. The Theta is the first vessel which has arrived at this port for some time which flies a foreign flag.

The sight of the British colors on the river front reproduced many reminiscences of by-gone days when flags of other nations at our docks and in the stream were a common spectacle. The schooner was inspected by Dr. Snowden, of the U. S. Marine Hospital Service who found all well on board.

The Market.

The market this morning was tolerably well supplied with seasonal produce. The country people had fresh pork which brought 12c for fore quarters and 15c for hind. Rabbits were plentiful. They sold from 15 to 20c, according to condition. There were average displays of fresh fish, meats, vegetables and fruits. Prices in the main had fluctuated but little from those which prevailed last Saturday.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Circuit Court for the county, Judge Nicol, will begin its fall term on Monday.

The schooner John P. Robinson is loading lumber at Smoot & Co.'s wharf for the lower river.

The monthly meeting of the Relief Fire Company was held last night, but no business of special interest was transacted.

The Northwest Alexandria Improvement Company has sold to A. A. Warfield, lot 35, block 25, in North West Alexandria.

Rev. Mr. Coleman, of the Episcopal Theological Seminary, will conduct the services at the Railroad Reading Rooms tomorrow afternoon.

The Alexandria Water Company has constructed a new and substantial footway bridge across the wasteway near the Mahoneyville distillery, near Cameron run.

Rev. Mr. Leucke in the Immanuel Lutheran Church tomorrow night will deliver a sermon on "The thousand years of Christ's ruling with his saints"—Rev. xx.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Methodist Protestant Church is making arrangements for an entertainment which will be given on the night of the 13th instant in the lecture room of the church.

Chief Petty has received an invitation from the commissioners to witness the annual parade and review of the District of Columbia fire department and police force to be held on Tuesday next.

Charles R. Morgan yesterday filed suit in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia for divorce from Fannie E. Morgan on statutory grounds. They were married in this city, December 10, 1890.

Mrs. Janet G. Leadbeater has sold to Mr. W. A. Moore, Jr., a lot on the west side of Columbus street, between Cameron and Queen, for $850. Mr. Moore will erect two dwelling houses on the lot.

The northwest wind which set in during the early hours of yesterday morning produced a clear sky and a decidedly cool wave. The weather is again seasonable and fires, overcoats and wraps are once more in evidence.

The Ladies' Home Mission Society of the Second Presbyterian Church elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Wm. Campbell; Vice-President, Miss E. C. McKnight; Secretary, Miss Eliza Adam; Treasurer, Miss Maggie Harper.

The Episcopal High School football team yesterday afternoon defeated the Miller School, of Albemarle county, by a score of 17 to 0 on the grounds of the winning team near this city. The features of the game were the 45-yard run of O. D. Randolph, of E. H. S., and the good playing generally of the home team, the hurdling of H. Lewis, and the all-around work of Harris, of the visiting team.

Read Isaac Eichberg & Son's advertisement in today's Gazette. They are offering a large line of shirts of all styles and qualities at reduced prices. Shirts are indispensable articles and such an opportunity to purchase them at reduced prices may not again be offered.

Mount Vernon Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, held their monthly meeting last night, after which supper was served. A number of Washingtonians were present.

Robert Elliott has sold to H. L. Strider a house and lot on the west side of Patrick street, between Queen and Princess.

A new and improved fire plug has been placed at the northwest corner of Wolfe and Fairfax streets.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

No Cause For Wee.

Stokes—Speaking of mourning, if your rich uncle were to die, should you put on black?
Blekens—Certainly not. If he left me something handsome, why should I be such a hypocrite as to don the garb of woe? On the other hand, if he left me out of his will, how could I consistently put on mourning for such a curmudgeon?—Boston Transcript.

No Fight.

"Did you know that your political antagonist had cast reflections on your truth and veracity?"
"Yes."
"What are you going to do about it?"
"Nothing. My pride forbids me to fight any one except a gentleman, and a man who calls another a liar is no gentleman."—Washington Star.

Three Letters.

"Gayboy—A fellow can't be too careful about his letters to women.
Henpeck—That's right. A woman got three letters from me once that have kept me in hot water ever since.
Gayboy—You don't mean it?
Henpeck—Fact. They were "Y-e-a"—Philadelphia Press.

Another Keyboard to Be Learned.
"Oh," despairingly exclaimed the typewriter girl who was taking her first lesson on the piano, "I don't believe I can ever learn to operate it. The keyboard's so different!"—Chicago Tribune.

From nettle fiber a thread has been produced so fine that a length of sixty miles of it weighs but two and a half pounds.

The Baby and the Pastor.
Father of the Pastor (after the sermon)—How Horace has changed since he was a baby!
The Mother—What an idea! Of course he has changed.
Father—What I mean is that when he was a baby he used to keep me awake.—Boston Transcript.

Beautiful and fine display of ladies' ready made bleached muslin underwear at Schwarz's, 518 King street. This is an offering of unusual merit. Every garment guaranteed to be well made of good material, and full sized.

If you are bilious and seeking advisers, Take DeWitt's Little Early Risers Just before going to bed. You will find on the morrow You are rid of your sorrows—That's all; just enough said.

These famous pills do not gripe, but move the bowels gently and easily, cleansing the liver. Their tonic effect gives strength to the disorder. E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

Section 11, large toys, such as velocipedes, wagons, swinging horses, tool chests, furniture, desks, &c.

Section 12, dolls of all kinds; also everything pertaining to dolls.

Our "W. & L. Special" Dollar Doll

The best doll at the price, we believe to be found in this or any other city. Fine head, life-like face and eyes, beautiful curly hair; splendidly made, jointed body. We had to buy thousands of this particular doll in order to be able to sell it for a dollar.

Would be glad to have you compare it with any doll you have ever seen at the same price. Our Toy Store is a great bazaar, occupying the more-than-half-acre fourth floor; is well lighted, well ventilated and is easy of access, being reached by five elevators, four of which run into the heart of the Toy Store.

There will be much to interest and amuse the grown folks also.
